

ESTATE TOTALS HALF MILLION

Washington Lawyer Leaves Relatives in Scotland Substantial Sums.

Joseph J. Darlington, lawyer, who died two weeks ago, left an estate valued at $500,000, according to the petition for probate of the will filed yesterday by the National Savings and Trust Company.

The estate consists of personal property valued at $335,000, and real estate valued at $165,000. Darlington's will was dated November 22, 1918, and contained a codicil dated January 26, 1920. It contained bequests and devises totaling $40,000 in cash.

David Low, nephew of Robert Low, stone merchant of Third street and Maryland avenue southwest, who died July 5, is to inherit his uncle's interest in the stone business, according to the will filed yesterday.

Jane Low Morgan, of Kirkcaldy, Scotland, is given $1,000. Robert Low is given an undivided half interest in six lots in Reservation "C" in the District. The balance of the estate is devised in trust to the Washington Loan and Trust Company with instructions to reduce the estate to cash and divide it into four parts.

Two parts are given to Andrew Low, of Kirkcaldy, and one part each to Isabelle Bisset and Katie Bisset, of Edinburgh, Scotland.

Mrs. Margate Hamilton Murphy, widow of Charles J. Murphy, law professor and attorney, who died suddenly on July 4 at Jessup, Md., is named sole beneficiary in her husband's will.

GERMANY TO TURN
NEW WAR MACHINE
LOOSE ON POLAND

were preparing to launch their new thunderbolt of war.

They view the advance of the Russians over Poland without interference by the allied forces as an indication that the allies were so war worn they would not lift a hand to save Poland from any attack, and they looked with covetous eyes on the rich provinces of Poland, with their mineral and agricultural wealth.

It was this plot which held Herr Gessler, the German war minister, from the Spa conference until, urged by Chancellor Fehrenbach, who was forced to this action by the premiers. Night and day Gessler and his military staff have been working on the plans for the Polish invasion for the past two weeks. Enormous quantities of arms and ammunition which, according to the treaty, should have been destroyed or turned over to the Allies, have been rushed secretly into Lithuania via Eydtkuhnen, on the German-Russian frontier.

Training Lithuanians.

At Wilkomska German officers are busy training Lithuanian troops in the handling of machine guns, which bear the mark of the Imperial German army. German officers, Petersdorff, Eckhardt and Vogel, command the sixth and eighth Lithuanian infantry and the first cavalry. German armored trains and a great party of German officers are serving on the Lithuanian General Staff.

The Lithuanian flying corps is officered by German oberleutenants, and Koch and Meissen airplanes are being turned over to the Lithuanians in quantities by the German war department at the Kielno airbase. More than 400 German officers are in active service in the Lithuanian army.

The strategy of the attack on Poland was to include simultaneous movements upon that country by the Germans from East Prussia, by the Lithuanians and by the Soviets from Russia.

Misunderstanding With Lenine.

It seems almost positive that Lenine has at last reached a definite understanding with the German government and that Europe must expect the two countries to stand as one against the former allies and the enforcement of the terms of the peace treaty.

Warnings are tonight being flashed by the chancelleries of Europe and to Washington of the alliance and the new war which Europe must face—it is regarded as certain that Poland will demand protection from the allies and that the armies of England and France will be expected to support her.

What the attitude of the United States may be is not known here. (Copyright, 1920, Cross-Atlantic Newspaper Service, Inc.)

PEACH JAGS DOOMED, HEALTH OFFICER SAYS

Determined to force off the market a brand of peach extract, known to be used in lieu of liquor lately, Dr. William C. Fowler, District health officer, declared yesterday that he was optimistic concerning his success in the venture.

Dr. Fowler yesterday took up the question with various officials in Washington. He said that decisive results will be forthcoming in the near future.

Suit Brought to Recover Debt.

The Diamond Rubber Company, of Akron, Ohio, filed suit yesterday in the District Supreme Court against Rolland A. Fleharty, president of the bankrupt "Motor Inn, Inc.," an automobile accessories concern, to recover $7,214.47, which it claims to be due on purchases.

Clothes washed by BlueBird, wear longer.

There can be no wear, no tear; no harm of any sort. There's no rub-board to grind away the fabric. That is why all clothes washed the BlueBird way last at least five times longer. Think what this means a year! Replacements in household linens are less frequent. These savings alone more than pay for BlueBird. BlueBird does the whole week's washing in about an hour. Turn the switch—clothes are "on the line by nine." All without effort on your part, without drudgery, without expense.
